

Invitation to attend NETTAB 2011 and submit your contribution

NETTAB 2011 on Clinical Bioinformatics

October 12th - 14th, 2011
Pavia, Italy

NETTAB 2011 is the eleventh in a series of international workshops on Network Tools and Applications in Biology.

NETTAB workshops are aimed at presenting and discussing emerging ICT technologies whose adoption in support of biology could be of particular interest.

This year, NETTAB is focused on Clinical Bioinformatics and is aimed at presenting the methods, tools and infrastructures that are nowadays available and will also show some of the most interesting applications in this field.
